Writing Calendar

Welcome to your free monthly writing plan!

It's summer! And this month we're rocking a vaguely summery theme. Only vaguely, mind.

You can write as much or as little as you like, for as long as you like – but I recommend setting a timer for at least 5 minutes. Start with a step so small you can't fail.

Give yourself the gift of creativity and space to write this June – and bring a friend! It's free to join in.

TTFN, Vicky xo
