Writing Calendar

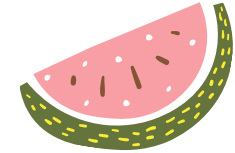

Welcome to your free monthly writing plan!

This month: it's August, it's holiday time, and the fields are turning golden.

There's an eclectic mix of writing prompts for you to dig into—write as much or as little as you like, for as long as you like. I recommend setting a timer for at least 5 minutes. Start with a step so small you can't fail.

Give yourself the gift of creativity and space to write this August – and bring a friend! It's free to join in.
