Writing Calendar

Welcome to your free monthly writing plan!

This month: we're feeling thankful and getting cosy as the nights draw in and it starts getting chilly...

You can write as much or as little as you like, for as long as you like – but I recommend setting a timer for at least 5 minutes. Start with a step so small you can't fail.

Give yourself the gift of creativity and space to write this November – and bring a friend! It's free to join in.

TTFN, Vicky xo
